

Assistant Curator of Public Programmes Information and Application Pack

Introduction

Artes Mundi is the key internationally focused flagship visual arts organisation in Wales generating unique opportunities for individuals and local communities to engage creatively with the urgent issues of our time in ways which resonate with us all. We are committed to stimulating dialogues and debates, internationally and locally, that develop greater understanding of ourselves, of others, and of the relations between familiar and distant cultures.

In 2023 Artes Mundi will launch AM10, our tenth biennial exhibition and prize, celebrating our 20th anniversary of presenting groundbreaking international contemporary art in Wales. As the first pan-Wales iteration of the project, AM10 will take place across four cities with five venue partners. We are seeking to appoint an Assistant Curator of Public Programmes who will work with the Curator of Public Programmes, the team of Engagement Producers and the wider Artes Mundi staff to develop and coordinate new creative routes into the AM10 exhibition. The Assistant Curator will assist in the design, delivery and evaluation of tours, workshops and events, both in-person and online, that relate to work presented in the exhibition. The Role

Reporting to the Curator of Public Programmes, the Assistant Curator is a key public facing role for Artes Mundi's audiences and an important position connecting with the Public Programme team. This post is designed to assist with logistical planning, content development and creative delivery for the AM10 Public Programme of events, talks, tours and workshops. A key goal is to engage audiences, participants and contributors equitably and fully in our work through design and delivery of activities that are informative, appealing and that create a positive experience. Responsibilities and tasks through in-person and digital means are to:

- Support in the administration and running of Artes Mundi's weekly public events, including:
 - Assisting with preparing logistics and process for all events
 - Liaising with event contributors and Engagement Producers
 - Assisting with communication and marketing through social media
 - Managing ticket bookings
 - Arranging access support for audiences and contributors
 - Providing technical support on online platforms including Zoom, Instagram, Facebook, Youtube and Vimeo
 - Support with collecting feedback and evaluation data
- Lead daily and one-off guided tours for the general public and pre-booked groups
- Assist in running family activities at weekends and during school holidays
- Assist in running activity for primary and secondary schools, colleges and universities.
- Collect audience feedback and contribute towards the evaluation of the Public Programme
- Liaise and plan with the Curator of Public Programmes and broader Artes Mundi team

Venue Partners and Working Locations

Our venue partners for AM10 include:

- Chapter, Cardiff
- Glynn Vivian Art Gallery, Swansea
- Mostyn, Llandudno
- National Museum Cardiff
- Oriel Davies Gallery, Newtown.

It is a requirement of this role that the Assistant Curator can travel to at least one of these venues to undertake work in person. Travel to each venue may also be required but appropriate in-work travel time will be allotted. For this reason, we would like to encourage applications from people living in the local area around each of our venue partners.

The Person

We are seeking an individual who can demonstrate a commitment to engaging the widest of groups and communities with contemporary visual arts. This may involve challenging ideas and issues, but we are keen to hear from people who can imaginatively and creatively deal with this through generating ideas toward stimulating and informative activities. We want to work with people who:

- Are open, curious and passionate about culture, the arts and communities in Wales
- Are interested in sharing their ideas and are interested in listening to other's
- Enjoy learning new things and taking on challenges
- Can work independently but are comfortable asking for support and guidance

This role will be primarily supported by the Curator of Public Programmes but you will also have contact with and be supported by the whole Artes Mundi team.

Essential skills and knowledge includes:

- Planning, organising and coordinating imaginative and creative events and resources
- Producing finished projects while meeting timelines
- Analysing, prioritising and organising their work independently as well as working as part of a team
- Excellent presentation and communication skills, including writing for a range of levels with individuals of all ages and the ability to

- converse with a wide range of audiences
- Working with people from different backgrounds across a wide range of levels and responsibilities
- An understanding of the social model of disability and ideas about how it can be applied to working with artists, contributors and audiences
- Enjoying learning new things and taking on challenges
- The ability to prioritise and work on multiple tasks at the same time
- Being passionate about culture and the arts, and their role in society
- Having good knowledge and computer skills including MS Office package including Word, Outlook and Excel

In addition, desirable knowledge and skills for this role include:

- Having good knowledge and skills for online platforms including Zoom, Eventbrite, Instagram, Facebook, Youtube and Vimeo
- Experience or understanding of how to work with children and young people
- Experience or understanding of how to work with schools and colleges

What we will do to support you to do your best work

The Assistant Curator of Public Programmes will work closely and collaboratively with the Curator of Public Programmes who will be responsible for ensuring you are fully supported in your work. You will have regular contact time via Zoom, and where possible meetings in person.

We are committed to providing an environment that nourishes meaningful participation and positive learning experiences. The Curatorial team at Artes Mundi will provide guidance while you are in post and will act as advisors and mentors to you with additional support from the wider team. The advantages of being a small core team will allow you to have regular, daily contact with key members of the artistic leadership including the Director in addition to contributing to formal planning and programming meetings.

Artes Mundi is committed to ensuring equity of opportunity wherever possible and will support with additional costs that will enable the successful applicants to do their best work. Please contact us directly if there is anything specific you would like to talk to us about.

You will have significant opportunity to grow your confidence and develop your networks with us. You will be given invitations to exhibition openings and creative networking, events and opportunities. At the end of this contract we will assist you to prepare for other opportunities, including support with writing applications, preparing for interviews and providing references to any future employers.

Inclusive Practices

Artes Mundi aims to become a truly inclusive organisation with a workforce and audience whose lived experience is as diverse as the communities it serves. This is fundamental to our future success and ability to continue to contribute to culture and society in Wales and the UK.

Artes Mundi is fully committed to ensuring equality in all our work and we are actively collaborating to create inclusive working cultures. We recognise that there are many people whose experiences and perspectives are not well represented in our work or in the arts sector in Wales. This includes people who are ethnically and culturally diverse; Deaf, disabled and neurodivergent people and people from working class communities. We are especially encouraging applicants who can speak to one or more of these experiences and cultures, including Welsh speakers.

Please note that all interviews will take place online, using Zoom or alternative platforms on request. Further information and instructions will be given to applicants who are invited to an interview. The interview panel will include both members of the Artes Mundi team and members of the Held-Space Network. Financial support is available to anyone who requests assistance that will help them to participate in the interviews online.

Terms of Appointment

This position is offered as a 7-month contract on a freelance basis. An inclusive fee of £10,800 is available for an anticipated 3.5 days/26 hours per week to be paid in monthly instalments by invoice.

Typical working hours are 9.30am-5.30pm. The post holder will be asked to deliver and undertake work on some evenings and weekends. Appropriate notice will be given.

This post involves working with children and vulnerable adults. Your offer of employment may be subject to a satisfactory disclosure from the Disclosure and Barring Services (DBS). Failure to reveal information relating to any convictions could lead to withdrawal of an offer of employment.
